In the town of Lyschtralun, the quiet life of the peaceful community is interrupted by creatures, or rather, by a certain phenomenon: the inexplicable apparition of monsters. The monsters, who usually appear during the night, are terrible creatures and ravage the beautiful town, leaving it in ruins. The townsfolk try to stop the monsters, but the monsters appear in all different shapes and sizes. No, they do not all take the same shape, and they are not the same level. However, there is one who knows how to battle the monsters: Ainz Ooal Gown. He is a traveling adventurer who wants to exterminate all monsters. You can ask the monsters for help in order to solve a puzzle, but they won't assist you, because they are friends

While living in the city of Thorsdorf, Ainz saved the people of the city during the Demon Dragon Invasion and gained fame. However, it was not enough to earn him a post in the nation's army, and so he left Thorsdorf to continue his adventures. He arrived in the village of Serstenz in the neighboring nation of Koruro, and he met a woman named Rea Erkene. She was a monster-slayer who fought and defeated all kinds of creatures. Ainz joined with her in the latter stages of the battle to help her. Ainz then went to the village of Lyschtralun in the city of Kirrighard. It is a tiny village with an archaic industry.
