The controversial episode had the show's biggest fan base accusing it of outright sexism, whilst others have praised the single-minded focus of the episode. So, the internet was in uproar over the choice of the episode title "Beyond the Wall". Many have questioned why, in one of the darkest episodes of Game of Thrones, the eponymous character Arya Stark would choose to venture beyond the safety of the Wall with no weapons or supplies. It seems in the final episode of season five, Arya decides to venture beyond the Wall only to find herself caught between two groups of wightlings, one of whom she was told to avoid. It's at this point in the episode the title "Beyond the Wall" is revealed — but it's also where the discussion of the name of the episode starts to make less sense. A poster at chrishangekins.com claimed that the title "Beyond the Wall" is the epic "one liner line most Game
